A SPECIAL COURSE IN PATENT LAW AND PATENT LAW PRACTICE,
Corducted by Professors Benjamin Butterworth and Melville Church.

The services of the Hon. Benjamin Butterworth, a patent lawyer of national prominence and formerly Commissioner of Patents, Lave been secured for a series of lectures on the patent statutes and the general principles of patent law as administered in the Federal Courts and in the United States Patent Office; and of Melville Church, Esq., a member of the Washington Bar, and a specialist in patent law, for giving practical instruction in respect to the great unwritten law of practice in patent eases.

This course in practice will cover a period of eight months, with two lectures or sessions of the Moot Court each week.

A degree of Bachelor of Patent Laws will be conferred upon those who are able to pass a satisfactory examination at the close of the term.

Only graduates in law or members of the bar will be eligible to this degree.

Tuition for the course, $50.

As the size of the class must necessarily be limited in order that the course—especially the Moot Ceurt practice—may be carried on effectively, applications for admission should be promptly made cor before October 1, 1895.

The thrty-first annual session of the School of Law opens on Thursday, October 3, at 6 o'clock p.m., when introductory lecture will be delivered by President Whitman, and announcements made for the ensuing term.

Rev. Joseph T. Kelly, pastor of the Fourth Presbyterian Church, expected to reach Washington in time to fill his pulpit the first Sunday in this month, but has been prevented by the continued illness of his father-in-law, whom he accompanied to Maine in the hopes of regaining the health of the latter. Mr. Kelly is, however, expected back from Maine by the 1st of October, and will then take charge of his pulpit.

At the bl-monthly mass meeting of the local council, Brotherhood of St. Andrew, held this week in Ascension Church, resolutions were offered by Vice President Barnabas Bryan of Emmanuel Chapter, and adopted by the council, expressive of sorrow at the untimely death of Mr. Dana Davenport of Anacostia, who was a member of Emmanuel Chapter of the Brotherhood, and well known to many members of the local council. Mr. Bryan, in offering the resolution, spoke very feelingly of the character of the unforturate young man, and was followed in the same strain by several additions were made to the in-Several additions were made to the interior of St. Paul's Catholic Church this week. One was the handsome baptismal font mentioned in The Star several weeks ago, and which is the gift of Miss Mary Carey Fellows. It is of Gothic design, corresponding to the architecture of the church and is much admired. Four of the handsome stained glass windows contracted for from a Cincinnati firm have also arrived and are in position. Each is a memorial and the donations of members of the parish.

The National Gospel Mission Union, an organization instituted in this city last spring, is making arrangements to hold the first convention of the association in Washington about the middle of October, though the exact date has not yet been decided upon. The authorities of the union have already corresponded with Mrs. Whitten.ore of the Door of Hopp Mission, New York city; with S. H. Hadley of the Water Street Mission, New York; Dr. Louis Klopsch, proprietor of the Christian Herald; Mr. R. J. Reed of Chicago, and others. The persons just mentioned have given their indorsement of the movement, and have consented to take part in the proceedings of the convention. The Silver Lake Quartet, a well known musical organization, has been engaged for a three-days' session.

It is proposed to have the first day include all local charitable and missionary organizations, each organization having time allotted to it for a statement of its work.

It is proposed to have the first day include all local charitable and missionary organizations, each organization having time allotted to it for a statement of its work. In this part of the program the Women's Christian Temperance Union, the Y. M. C. A., Christian Endeavor, Epworth League and others will be invited to take part. Such assurances have been received from abroad that the convention is expected to be a great success, and result in a great it crease in the membership of the union. It is patterned after the Christian workers' conventions, and arrangements for it are in charge of the local members of the board of directors of the Central Union Mission.

The last Sunday of this month will be celebrated at the Assembly Presbyterian Church Sunday school as rallying day. A picgram of special exercises will be presented, participated in by the Christian Endeavor Society, the Sabbath school and the other societies of the church.

Rev. Charles L. Pate returned last week from Washington Grove, where he has been enjoying cottage life since the 1st of June. Mr. Pate preached a number of times at the Grove, and was also present at Mountain Lake Park during the exercises in August there. During the summer several changes have been made to the interior arrangement of the North Capitol Sunday school room. Partitions have been placed in the Eurthwest and southwest corners of the room. Partitions have been placed in the rcorthwest and southwest corners of the rcom, and in these smaller rooms thus formed the ladies' Bible class and the men's Bible class liave been located. The classes of the school that formerly occupied this section of the lecture room have been moved up into the main auditorium of the church.

Presiding Elder Luther B. Wilson of this district of the M. E. Church conference is now at Ocean Grove, with his family. Dr. Wilson left the 1st of September, and is expected back by the first of next week. This is the first rest that he has taken this year, though he was up at Mountain Lake Park for a few days in August.

Rev. Samuel H. Greene, D. D., pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, is expected to resume his pulpit the first Sunday in October, though he will return from Europe scener than then, but will pass a couple of weeks at his old home in Vermont. Rev. Mr. Bliss of this city will fill the pulpit tomorrow at Calvary, and the remaining two Sundays President Whitman of Columbian University will deliver the sermon. Work is still progressing steadily forward on the extensive improvements to the church, but they will not be finished as soon as was expected, it being the hope of the congregation to hold the first service the first Sunday in October. The organ arrived this week, but will not be set up and completed for some time as yet. The opening session of the Baptist Ministers' Association is to be held Monday morning in the Sunday school house of Caivary Church. The meeting will be devoted to the outlining of work for the winter, and after that the sessions are to be held every Monday morning at Calvary Church. Rev. A. F. The parish school of St. Cyprian's Church opened Mondey of this week with an increased attendance over that of last year. Another class of a higher grade has been added to the school. The patronal feast of the parish is to be celebrated Sunday week by a solemn high mass, at which the Rev. George W. Devine of St. John's Church, Baltimore, is expected to preach. The Fiftcenth Street Methodist Episcopal Church, or, at least, the old church building, is demolished, and work was started this week on the excavation. As it is necessary to level the former high terrace several feet lower, it is not expected that the contractor will be ready for the cerner stone laying before three weeks yet.

E. conference, which was in session at Chicago recently, and was addressed by the bishop, has sent in a subscription of about four hundred dollars toward the university fund. Dr. S. L. Beiler, the vice chancellor, is traveling with a similar purpose through the western states, and will return to Washington the second week in October.

The Sabbath school of North Capitol M. E. Church now has the musical portion of its exercises considerably improved by an orchestra of eight pieces, recently organized. The chorister is Dr. J. T. Hensley, and the orchestra is made up of a bass viol, two cornets, three violins, a flute and a tenor Lorn. In addition to the pieces, the school possesses an organ and a piano.

Sunday, October 6, will be celebrated as "Rally day" by the Sabbath school of Calvary Church. The rally is to be divided into three parts, as follows: The first part will be the rally proper; the second, a reception to Dr. Greene on the part of the Sunday school scholars, and the third and last, an effort to raise five hundred dollars for the benefit of the library. Envelopes have been distributed for this latter purpose, and when their contents are all gathered in, a thousand new books will be purchased, if possible. The library, the way it stands now, contains nearly two thousand volumes, but the number is regarded as insufficient. Dr. Baldwin, president of the Mountain Lake Park Association, is back in Washington, after having been away about three weeks, and in discoursing about the improvements made at this great Methodist camp ground during the last year said that the authorities have spent about eight thousand dollars on it in a few months, and that thirty new cottages were erected last spring, representing a large additional outlay, though on the part of private persons. In all there are about a hundred and fifty cottages now at the park. The principal attraction added to it has been a lake of about twenty acres in extent, and made by damming the Broad Ford run, a clear mountain stream. been sent home to chronicle their success It is always pleasant to speak of the success of Washington people in any walk of life, more particularly in any branch of musical art, where the competition is so great that one must show signal ability in order to command attention. Washington has produced some excellent singers, who have made good reputations on the operatic stage, and who have reflected credit upon themselves and their native city. Mr. Wm. Pruett and Miss Lizzie Macnichol are two who are now winning laurels in the same opera in New York, and by their singing and acting have contributed largely to the success of De Koven's latest production, "Rob Roy." Mr. Pruett's baritone voice is among the best upon the operatic stage, and Miss Macnichol's contraito is of that rich, reedy quality that is so rare in a voice of such volume and extensive range as she possesses.

Last summer Mr. Louis Lindheimer, or, as he had become known on the stage, Homer Lind, returned to this, his native city, after spending several years in Germany cultivating his naturally fine baritors voice. It is always pleasant to speak of the suc-

as he had become known on the stage, Hemer Lind, returned to this, his nativacity, after spending several years in Germany cultivating his naturally fine baritore voice. He had commenced its improvement here under Mrs. Mills, but went abroad to get that finish and to be in that musical atmosphere that every young singer finds so advantageous. He gave one song recital here, and his friends were gratified at the great progress he had made, and the public readily recognized him as an artistic singer. He had offers to remain in this country, but none of them were to his liking, and he returned to Germany, where he had already some engagements to fulfill, and soon afterward was engaged by the Carl Rosa English Opera Company for the remainder of last season and for the whole of the present year.

That he has succeeded is evident from the enthusiastic press notices given him in Dublin, where the company commenced its season. The Freeman's Journal, speaking of his performance of Peter in "Hansel and Gretel," says: "Homer Lind has a wonderfully good voice, and no better impersonation of the character could be desired. He enters right into the spirit and meaning of it, and there is a wonderful touch of pathos conveyed by his acting and vocalism in one scene. He is a thorough artist, and his reappearance will be always welcomed." The

The Irish Times thus speaks of his interpretation of Kans the Pedlar in Mendelssohn's "Son and Stranger:" "Mr. Homer Lind threw himself heart and soul into the part of the Pedlar, and had no little to do with the success of the performance. the success of the performance. His readering of 'I'm a Roamer' was enthusiastically received."

It is understood that there will be several winter, and many local singers of both sexes will be heard in the casts. There is no city of its size in the country that has as much amateur operatic talent as Washington, and that is why there has never been a bad performance of that character given in this city.

Mrs. Kate Scott Brooks will sing with the Immaculate Conception Church choir when it resumes its work for the season Sunday, the 22d instant. Mrs. Clara Baker Smith, who has so ably conducted this choir for many years, will continue in charge, with Mr. Arthur D. Mayo ss organist.

Mrs. Kitty Thompson Berry has not yet commenced work with the choir at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, Miss Florence Grigg being substituted for her since the services were resumed. It is expected that Mrs. Berry will return to the city next week and sing the following Sunday.

Mr. L. Eugene French, late director of St. Patrick's choir, has received an offer from St. Peter's Church of this city.
